The University Political System - Committees and Interrelationships

In this diagram, all university-political committees from academic and student self-administration of the TU Darmstadt are listed with the relevant key data.

After i.saarv - AStA TU Darmstadt The students elect and academic self-government Student Parliament University Assembly (UV) Student Faculty Council (FBR) 31 students 31 professors Representatives (FSR) Consists of students. 15 students professors, WiMis & ATM. Consists of 3 to 9 10 research assistants students. The number The number of members 5 administrative-technical elects depends on the number of depends on the number employees students of students in the department elects AStA - executive The UV deals with matters of committee of the fundamental importance to the university. Dean's Office These include, in particular, statements students body on fundamental questions concerning the Dean 6 elected speakers development of the university, the Associate Dean 20 appointed officers teaching and study program, and young Dean of Studies academics. Commercial units: 600sam, castle cellar. Faculty castle garden, paper store The AStA is the managing executive body, i.e. the government and administration Senate Committees Senate Presidium of the student body. In addition. President is chairperson Central OSL Means 1 President the AStA represents the 10 professors Commission interests of the students 4 vice presidents externally. · Senate Committee for 4 students 1 Chancellor Studies and Teaching 3 WiMi

- · Senate Committee Structure and Budget
- · Ethics Commission
- · Scientific Council
- Working Group Civil Clause
- · Quality Management Advisory Board

3 ATM

The Senate advises the Presidential Board on matters of structure. development and construction planning. budget, research, teaching and studies. It supervises the management of the Presidential Board.

University Council

The University Council has a right of initiative on fundamental matters and exercises control functions. It consists of 10 external members, half of whom are proposed by the Presidential Board and half by the Hessian state government.