

The University Political System - Committees and Interrelationships

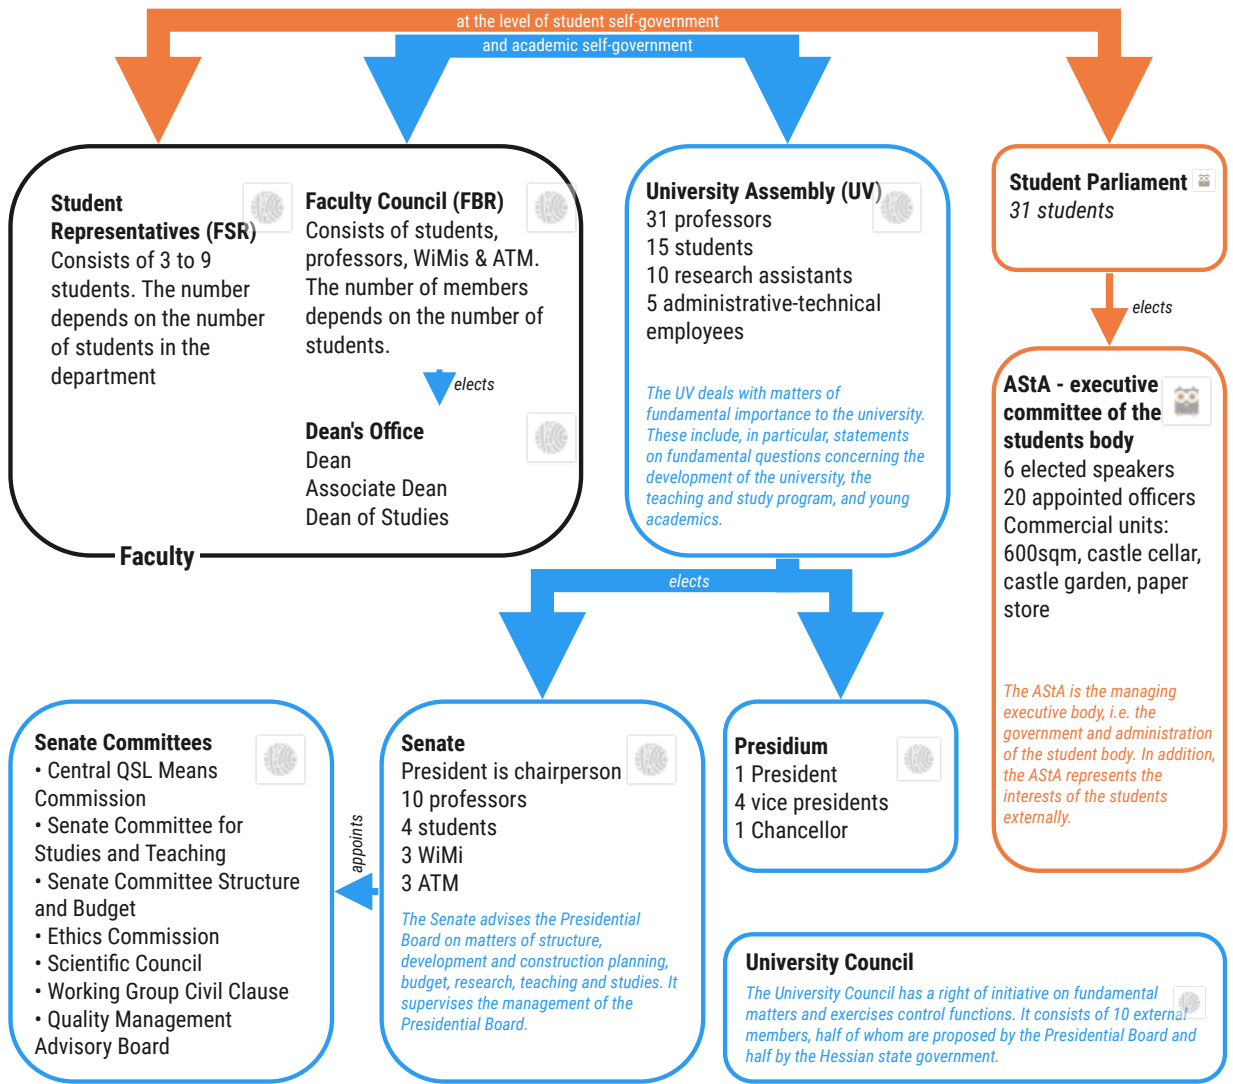

In this diagram, all university-political committees from academic and student self-administration of the TU Darmstadt are listed with the relevant key data.

After j.saary - AStA TU Darmstadt

The students

elect

at the level of student self-government and academic self-government

Student Representatives (FSR)

Consists of 3 to 9 students. The number depends on the number of students in the department

Faculty Council (FBR)

Consists of students, professors, WiMis & ATM. The number of members depends on the number of students.

Dean's Office

Dean
Associate Dean
Dean of Studies

Faculty

University Assembly (UV)

31 professors
15 students
10 research assistants
5 administrative-technical employees

The UV deals with matters of fundamental importance to the university. These include, in particular, statements on fundamental questions concerning the development of the university, the teaching and study program, and young academics.

Student Parliament

31 students

AStA - executive committee of the students body

6 elected speakers
20 appointed officers
Commercial units:
600sqm, castle cellar, castle garden, paper store

The AStA is the managing executive body, i.e. the government and administration of the student body. In addition, the AStA represents the interests of the students externally.

Senate Committees

- Central QSL Means Commission
- Senate Committee for Studies and Teaching
- Senate Committee Structure and Budget
- Ethics Commission
- Scientific Council
- Working Group Civil Clause
- Quality Management Advisory Board

Senate

President is chairperson
10 professors
4 students
3 WiMi
3 ATM

The Senate advises the Presidential Board on matters of structure, development and construction planning, budget, research, teaching and studies. It supervises the management of the Presidential Board.

Presidium

1 President
4 vice presidents
1 Chancellor

University Council

The University Council has a right of initiative on fundamental matters and exercises control functions. It consists of 10 external members, half of whom are proposed by the Presidential Board and half by the Hessian state government.